The little dog laughed
To see such sport.

SING A SONG OF SIXPENCE

By Mother Goose

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL

Sing a song of sixpence,
A pocket full of rye.

Four and twenty blackbirds,
Baked in a pie.

When the pie was opened,
The birds began to sing;
Wasn't that a dainty dish,
To set before the king?

The king was in his counting house,
Counting out his money;

The queen was in the parlour,
Eating bread and honey.

The maid was in the garden,
Hanging out the clothes;

When down came a blackbird
And pecked off her nose.

And shortly after that,
there came a little wren,
As she sat upon a chair,
and put it on again.
