OLD MOTHER HUBBARD

OLD Mother Hubbard
Went to the cupboard
To get her poor dog a bone;
When she came there
The cupboard was bare,
And so the poor dog had none.

She went to the baker's
To buy him some bread,
But when she came back
The poor dog was dead.

She went to the joiner's
To buy him a coffin,
But when she came back
The poor dog was laughing.

She took a clean dish
To get him some tripe,
But when she came back
He was smoking his pipe.

She went to the ale-house
To get him some beer,
But when she came back
The dog sat in a chair.

She went to the tavern
For white wine and red,
And when she came back
The dog stood on his head.

She went to the barber's
To buy him a wig,
And when she came back
He was dancing a jig.

She went to the tailor's
To buy him a coat,
But when she came back
He was riding the goat.

She went to the cobbler's
To buy him some shoes,
But when she came back
He was reading the news.

She went to the hosier's
To buy him some hose,
But when she came back
He was dressed in his clothes.

She went to the hatter's
To buy him a hat,
But when she came back
He was feeding the cat.

She went to the sempstress
To buy him some linen,
But when she came back
The poor dog was spinning.

She went to the fruiterer's
To buy him some fruit,
But when she came back
He was playing the flute.
